Welcome

Thank you for your interest in joining the team at the Community Transport Association (CTA). Community transport supports people to live independently, participate in their communities and access local services and amenities.

Our mission at CTA is to champion, connect, support and grow a thriving community transport movement across all parts of the UK. Community transport operators have a great story to tell and it is CTA’s job as their national membership body to help them tell it and to support them to develop excellent services that can transform lives and communities.

Our work here in Northern Ireland is integral to this. We have around 85 members and many other stakeholders across Northern Ireland that all provide accessible and inclusive transport solutions in their community. We work closely with, and receive funding from, the Northern Ireland Executive to develop and deliver important work with communities across Northern Ireland.

Like many organisations and sectors, the pandemic has presented community transport with some challenges but their passion and resourcefulness have shone through in ensuring their users have stayed connected and been able to access the essentials. The role of community transport remains as important as ever and we will have a critical role in helping our members rebuild and thrive in Northern Ireland.

We are excited to be recruiting for our new Director for Northern Ireland. With its own political institutions and public/community transport being regulated and organised differently from the rest of the UK, we need an inspirational leader on the ground supporting the success and sustainability of community transport here.

Although we notionally have a Belfast base we’re open to applications from people living anywhere in Northern Ireland, so long as you don’t mind the occasional visit to Belfast and are willing to travel to the communities in which are members are based.

The new Director will help us to be influential and lead a clear policy agenda that advances the outcomes of, and support for, community transport, and that serves our members and their communities well. If you like the sound of this challenge and have the qualities and potential to rise to it, then we’d love to hear from you.

Best wishes,

Bill Freeman

Chief Executive
What is Community Transport?

Community transport supports people to live independently, participate in their communities and access local services and amenities. Run by charities, community groups and other not-for-profit entities it offers a reliable and resilient way of ensuring the broadest range of transport needs can be met. High levels of volunteer and user involvement in the creation and delivery of services are integral to this.

Services are person-centred and targeted towards those most likely to be under-served by mainstream transport, especially people who are less mobile and live in sparsely populated areas. This is made possible by services being accessible and flexible.

Demand-responsive journeys enable people to access everyday services, such as the shops or a hospital, whilst scheduled community buses connect and integrate communities with the wider transport network. It's about more than minibuses; our members use a range of vehicle types to get people where they want and need to be - whether that's school, college, work, social activities or public services.

Community transport operators forge strong links with local public bodies and other civil society organisations enabling more coordinated and integrated support for local populations. This leads to benefits beyond the value to the individual passengers, with community transport central to place-based approaches to creating positive change or managing complex situations, as we are today with coronavirus.
What is Community Transport?

CTA works with a wide range of community transport operators which can be split into several distinct types:

- Charities and other groups established for the specific purpose of providing not-for-profit transport services;

- Multipurpose community groups where transport is one of a range of ‘community self-help’ services they run. These will typically be community anchor / local infrastructure organisations;

- Organisations where transport is ancillary to enabling them to fulfil their social purpose - this includes communities of identity, disability / long-term condition specific groups, uniformed societies and sports clubs. This also includes education institutions and local authorities.

"I’m proud to be part of a sector where, every day, thousands of people across the country dedicate their time and effort to combat social isolation and loneliness. Our members make a real difference in helping people to be part of their communities and stay independent."

Mariana Pacheco, Development Officer
Community transport providers come in all shapes and sizes, operating different types of services to meet different types of needs. What they all have in common however, is the determination to provide accessible and inclusive transport for those who might otherwise not be able to get out and about. We've included some examples below: a traditional minibus service, a volunteer car scheme, a community group and a wheels 2 work scheme - all of which are valued CTA members.

South Antrim Community Transport - Ballyclare
As a rural community transport provider, South Antrim Community Transport provide a lifeline to those in their community who don't have access to a car or public transport - making sure they can access their local community. During the coronavirus pandemic, they have been instrumental in running essential journeys and providing their community with food parcels, prescriptions and transport for key workers.

The African Community Centre - Swansea
The African Community Centre operate a community car scheme based in Swansea that provides much needed transport for the city's asylum seekers. The cost of public transport is a huge burden for asylum seekers and is often unobtainable. The African Community Centre, set up in 2017 with the support of CTA, aim to change this with accessible, affordable and understanding transport.

The U-Turn Project - Belfast
The U-Turn Project is a community group in Belfast which seeks to help young people embrace a new future through sports and fitness. After fundraising for a new minibus by completing a 185 mile cycle ride around London, the group bought a minibus in 2017 and use it to great effect, taking young people to their local football league and helping local people who are unemployed access training they wouldn't otherwise be able to.

South Yorkshire Wheels 2 Work - Sheffield
Based at Sheffield Community Transport, South Yorkshire Wheels 2 Work is one of the biggest wheels to work schemes in the country. It provides short term scooter loans to people who struggle getting to work, training or college due to a lack of suitable or affordable public transport options. There are currently 150 scooters in use in South Yorkshire, mainly by young people, helping them to access opportunities that they might otherwise be denied.
We are for, and about, accessible and inclusive transport.

Our Vision
We want to see communities everywhere creating and sharing their own accessible and inclusive transport solutions.

Our Mission
We will champion, connect, support and grow a thriving community transport movement across all parts of the UK.

Our Values
We put members first
We lead with authority and responsibility
We prioritise mobility and accessibility
We champion volunteering
We think big
CTA in Numbers

"I feel very lucky to be part of a team where I can put my passion for access and inclusion into practice every day. We support a network of organisations across the country who are committed to helping their communities, and that gives me an enormous sense of satisfaction. There are so many opportunities to learn and stretch yourself, as well as using the skills you bring with you from other roles. No two days, or CTA members, look the same, and we approach our work with a collaborative mindset to maximise our impact as we support them."

Gemma Lelliott - Interim Director for Wales

"Working for CTA is brilliant because you have the opportunity to help support some incredible community champions who provide a lifeline to those who have no other means of accessing transport. You are supported by colleagues from across the UK and work on a wide range of projects. It is also great to work flexibly and remotely when you need to which makes it easier to manage other commitments whilst still getting the job done."

Dylan Gallanders
Training Development Manager

CTA has approximately 1,200 members across the UK, with around 85 of these being in Northern Ireland

We also have 20 staff members across the UK

We are based across 5 offices - our main central office in Manchester and other offices in Belfast, Neath, Llandudno and Edinburgh.

We're governed by a board of 11 trustees; 6 of whom are selected from the CTA membership.

Our annual income in 2019/20 was £1.1m
Our Objectives

We have a range of objectives, each relating to one of the four elements of our mission. We also have additional objectives about our work behind the scenes to make sure we’re fit for purpose and developing as an organisation.

Championing CT

We want to see greater attention given to community transport and the everyday experiences of their users in policy-making. This involves showing how community transport is relevant and responsive to key areas of public policy and how our members improve quality of life for people and families in their local communities.

Connecting CT

We want to be at the heart of a vibrant network of people and organisations pursuing a social mission within the world of passenger transport.

Supporting CT

We want our members and other community organisations providing transport to work with us to promote high standards of practice and services being delivered in a safe, legal and caring way.

Growing CT

We will constantly be on the lookout for opportunities to extend the reach and impact of the community transport model and mobilise new investment to enable those transformations.

Developing CTA

We want everything we do to be amazing all the time. We want people to have a high quality experience when they work with us, as members, stakeholders, staff or volunteers.
Our Board of Trustees is ultimately responsible for the overall performance of CTA and will conduct its business to ensure that we are financially viable; properly governed; and compliant. The Board of Trustees monitors performance of all functions of the CTA and decides the level of resources to meet our financial and other obligations. As well as these responsibilities, the Board approve and maintain our vision, mission and values, develop strategy and policy, ensure compliance with the law and maintain proper fiscal oversight.

The Board is comprised of up to six trustees nominated by members and up to five trustees co-opted by the Board of Trustees. In line with our constitution, our Board includes at least two member trustees based in Wales, Scotland, or Northern Ireland. Each serves for a period of three years and may stand for a consecutive three year term. The Board of Trustees appoints its Chair, Treasurer and Vice-Chair.

The Board of Trustees derives its authority and its responsibilities from two sources:

1) Charity Law, which lays out the specific duties of all charity trustees.

2) Our Constitution set out the composition of the Board of Trustees, the ways in which the trustees are appointed and their powers.

Committees

Three sub-committees support the board: Finance & Audit, Policy and Governance. These committees help give oversight and scrutiny to specific parts of the charity. They ensure the proper checks and balances are in place as well as giving sufficient time to look at these key aspects of the work that we undertake.
